One of the goals of the Office of Sunday School at the Alabama Baptist State Board of Missions is to provide churches with free resources to enable them to address strategic issues in Sunday School. It is great delight that we are now able to provide Sunday School lessons on a key, foundational subject: Stewardship.

Thom Rainer, president of LifeWay Christian Resources, has discovered through research that churches that teach stewardship and create a culture of stewardship are more effective in connecting people to the body of Christ. In truth, stewardship is a foundational element in mankind's relationship with God. From creation and in Christ we are called to be stewards of time, talent, and treasure. Everything belongs to God and we have been blessed to become His stewards.

I extend my thanks to Rick Ellison, Alabama Baptist State Missionary, for heading up this project and developing these three stewardship series for Sunday School. Rick has been a blessing to Alabamians in so many ways, but especially in his creation of useful resources. Randy Tompkins and Keith Wilkinson are two of my favorites and have been encouragers to me in the area of Sunday School work. I am sure you will appreciate the work of these fine individuals.

May God bless us all and find us to be faithful stewards in His Kingdom!

Rejoice!
