Ministry Title:	Building Healthy Church Relationships
Description:	The leader who leads most effectively is not necessarily the one who knows the most but, in many cases, is the one who relates best. The seminar helps pastors, staff ministers and church leaders to see more clearly into the potential of win-win relationships. Leaders will be challenged to look at problems as situations which can be solved before escalating to the point of conflict.

Ministry Title:	Change Your Church, but Don't Break It
Description:	"Change is Inevitable-Growth is Optional". "How is your church doing 'change'?" This seminar will focus on healthy ways to facilitate change. While stress can be good, we need to learn how much stress is too much stress. Churches can feel pushed, prodded and even pressured. Healthy balance is a desired pursuit. This will help pastors, deacons, and lay leadership teams as progress is made. Unity and effectiveness will be key principles at the foundation of this frontline learning opportunity.
