

SETTING UP YOUR ROYAL AMBASSADOR PROGRAM FOR SUCCESS!

Three main reasons for Royal Ambassadors

1. Mission Study and Mission Action
2. Advancement (Mission Projects)
3. Interest Activities (camping, pinewood derby cars, Adventure Weekend, etc.)

Three resources for Royal Ambassadors

1. Missions Journey: Kids Leader Kit
2. Missions Journey: Kids Adventure & Leader Magazines
3. RA Trek

All available through wmustore.com

Three Leaders

Leader One: Mission Study Leader

Leader Two: Advancement Leader

Leader Three: Interest Activities Leader

Responsibilities Of Each Leader

Mission Study Leader

Needs to know missions, love missions, and have a desire to get people involved in missions. They need to be a good teacher.

Mission Study Leader Resources

Missions Journey: Kids magazine // wmu.com // royalambassadors.org
(namb.net // imb.org for missionary information)

Advancement Leader

They may not be a “teacher” but they are organized, keep good records and they can plan good recognition ceremonies.

Advancement Leader Resources

patchcatalog.com // wmustore.com // alsbom.org/ra

Interest Activities Leader

May not know much about missions, but they like to do the fun stuff. They lead the activities which catch the attention of boys.

Interest Activities Leader Resources

Campcraft-Outdoor Living Skills // Pinewood Derby //
Soapbox Derby // Adventure Weekend

WHY THREE LEADERS?

When you have three leaders, no one has an overwhelming job. A leader (RA Counselor or Director) who tries to do it all will find it difficult to prepare lessons, plan activities and keep records. When three leaders share the responsibilities no one is left feeling overwhelmed. Remember, you're not looking for three "teachers". Look for people with organizational skills, creativity, enjoy outdoor sports.

Men's Spiritual Development /Royal Ambassadors
Larry Hyche | 1.334.613.2268 | lhyche@alsbom.org
Mary Kelley | 1.334.613.2227 | mkelley@alsbom.org
Or toll free 1.800.264.1225

1404 Fairview Ave.. Prattville, AL 36066
P.O. Box 681970, Prattville, AL 36068