Driving to Success

Message from President, Eva Nell Hunter:

Are you making your plans yet to drive your library to success by attending the State Library Workshop in September at Shocco Springs Conference Center? More conferences than ever! The majority will be mini allowing participants to receive information about more topics.

Conferences this year will include history, e-books, media for all age groups on various social issues, automation programs, digital photography, Excel and all of the regular ones on administrations, promotion, classification, etc. We will have some of our regular leaders along with several new faces.

We look forward to seeing you in September!

Reminders for State Workshop

Each library and association represented is asked to please bring a wrapped gift to be used as a door prize.

Mini Displays are needed!

Mini-Displays create an interesting atmosphere and give new ideas to attendees. Each church is encouraged to bring one to be displayed throughout the 2nd and 3rd floor of Bagley. Officers will prepare displays in the lobby of Bagley.
